

SOMALIA

CERF and SHF support in 2017 (as of 5 March 2018)

With US$89 million in coordinated allocations from the Central Emergency Response Fund (CERF) and the Somalia Humanitarian Fund (SHF), OCHA-managed pooled funds helped humanitarian partners in Somalia prevent famine in 2017.

By leveraging their comparative advantages – such as CERF’s disbursement speed and CBPF’s direct funding for local Non-Governmental Organizations (NGOs) – the humanitarian community rapidly scaled up humanitarian action and was able to deliver a stronger collective response.

COORDINATED ALLOCATIONS

Under the leadership of the Humanitarian Coordinator and in support of the Somalia Humanitarian Response Plan, relief organizations prioritized the most immediate needs of vulnerable people in areas of severe drought in Puntland, Somaliland and South Central with $33 million from CERF while directing the bulk of SHF's $56 million in 2017 funding to the best-placed NGOs to ensure quick and efficient delivery of assistance.
